Subject: Kingston Comprehensive Plan - Comments

To Whom It May Concern,

I am disappointed that the Comprehensive Plan does not mention the existing tourist railroad in Kingston (currently the last railroad in Ulster County). This fits in the city's message of historic preservation. I believe Kingston's current tagline is "Historic is just our beginning" so I would hate to see a historic railroad line be killed under that tagline. The railroad also fits into the areas of Tourism and Economic Development/Impact especially given this past year's success with bringing theme trains to Kingston (or 30,000 plus visitors).

Sincerely yours,
Beth Bengtson
