

LUSH LOTS

WE HEARD YOU!

94% of surveyed Kingston residents are interested in parks & green spaces.

40%

of Kingston's land is in conservation, natural, or large lot transects in the new zoning code to protect the City's green space and natural feel.

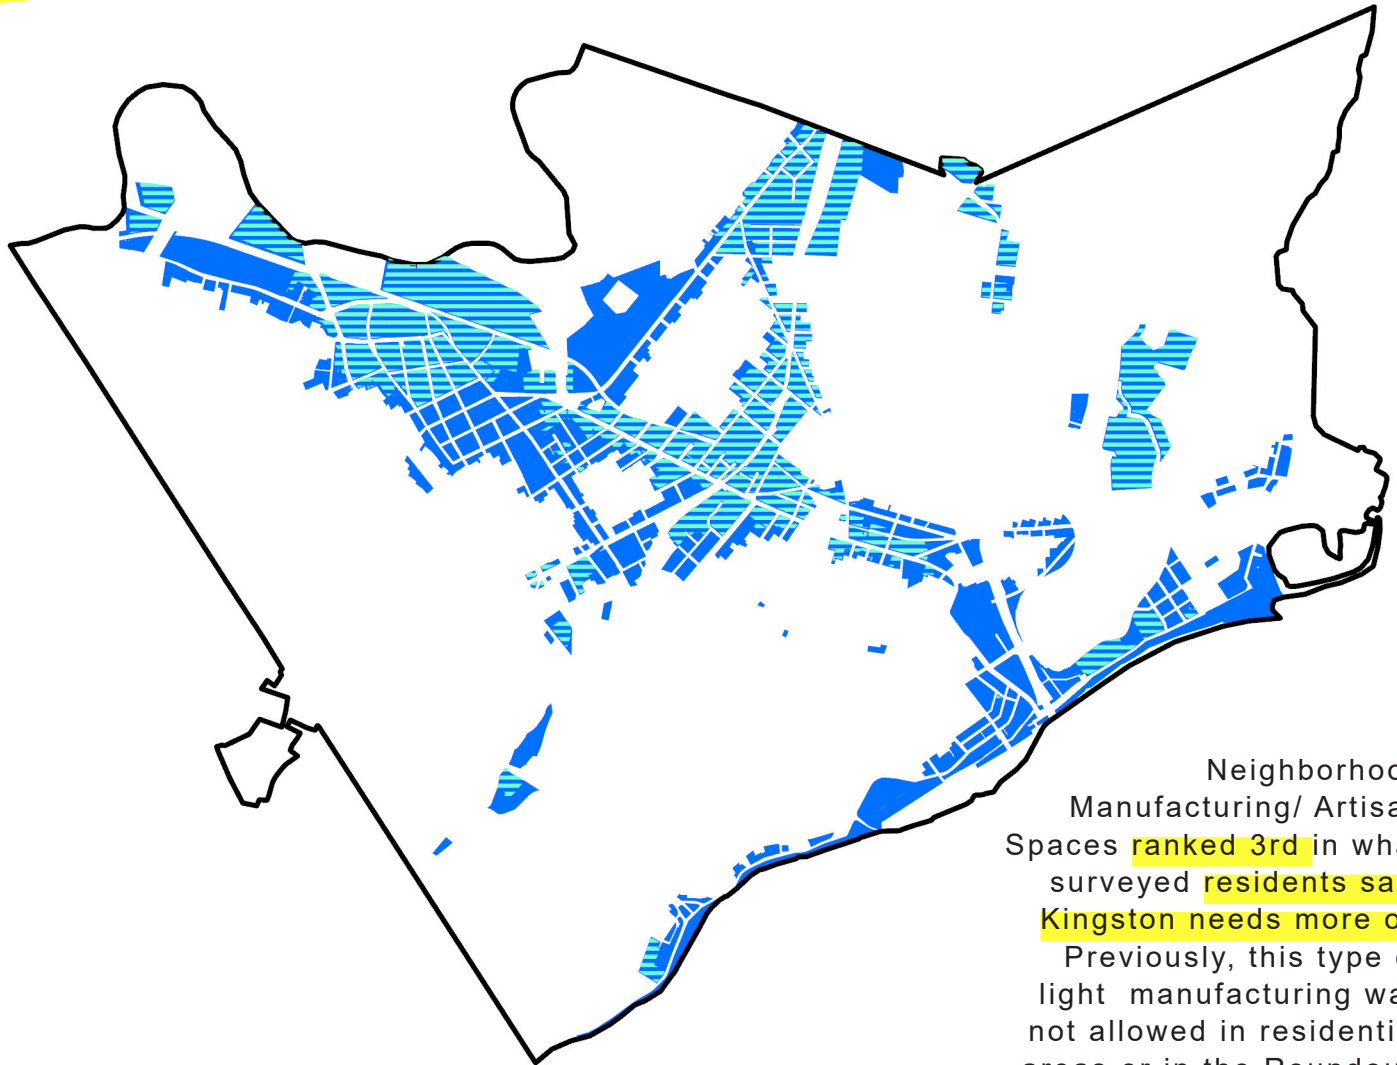

-  Natural
-  Conservation
-  Large Lots

engagekingston.com/kingston-forward

ARTISANAL ACCESS

WE HEARD YOU!

Neighborhood
Manufacturing/ Artisan Spaces ranked 3rd in what surveyed residents said
Kingston needs more of.

Previously, this type of light manufacturing was not allowed in residential areas or in the Roundout.

“LIGHT INDUSTRIAL, ESPECIALLY, SHOULD BE ALLOWED IN MORE PLACES”

Surveyed Resident

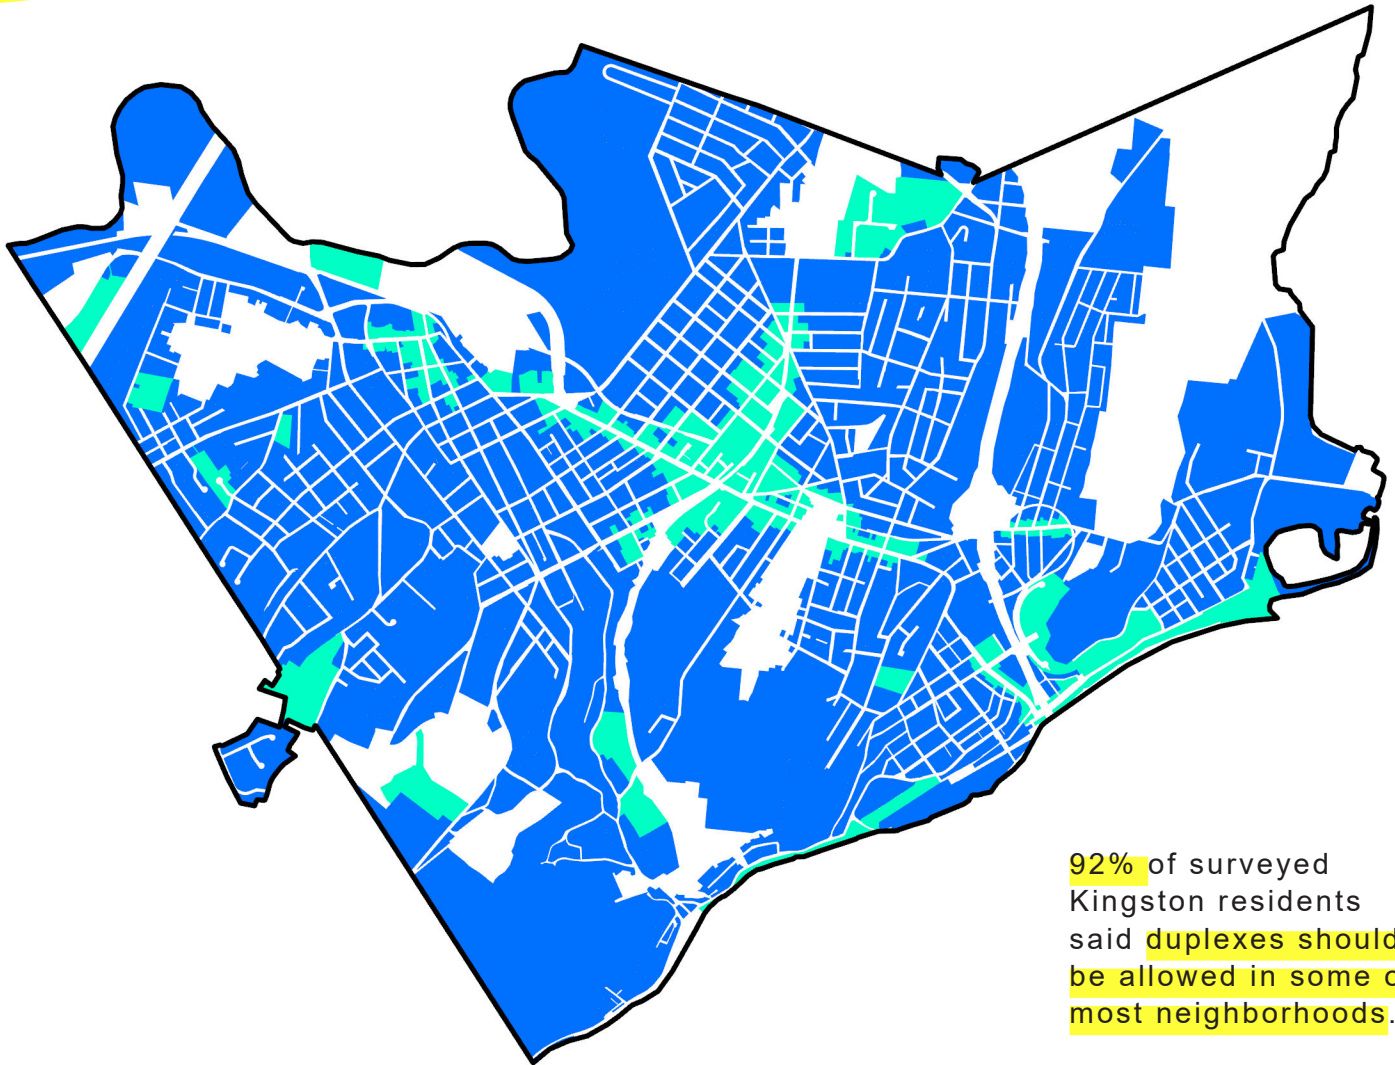

-  Newly Allowed Light Manufacturing as Artisanal Manufacturing/Industry with Community Focus or Point of Sale
-  Already Allowed Light Manufacturing

engagekingston.com/kingston-forward

DUPLEX 4 DAYS

WE HEARD YOU!

92% of surveyed Kingston residents said duplexes should be allowed in some or most neighborhoods.

89%

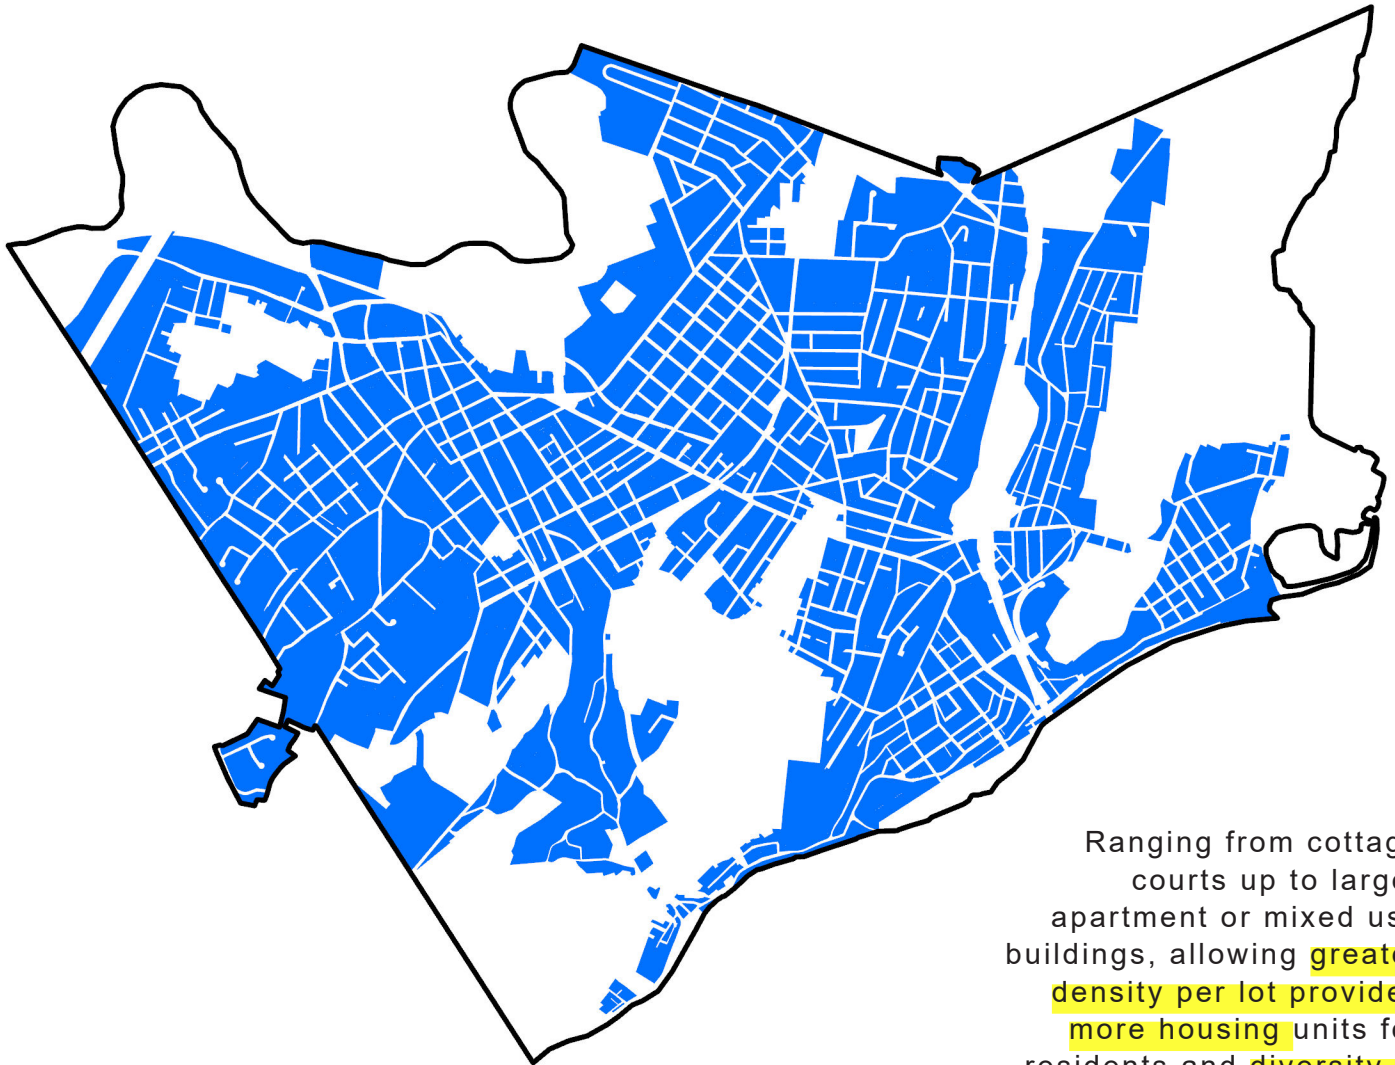

of Kingston's residential areas now allow duplexes! The remaining 11% allows for more dense buildings like stacked apartments.

- Areas that allow for duplexes
- Areas that don't allow duplexes but do allow for denser typologies

engagekingston.com/kingston-forward

FOUR OR MORE

Ranging from cottage courts up to larger apartment or mixed use buildings, allowing greater density per lot provides more housing units for residents and diversity in housing type options.

74%

of Kingston's residential areas now allow 4 or more units on a lot!

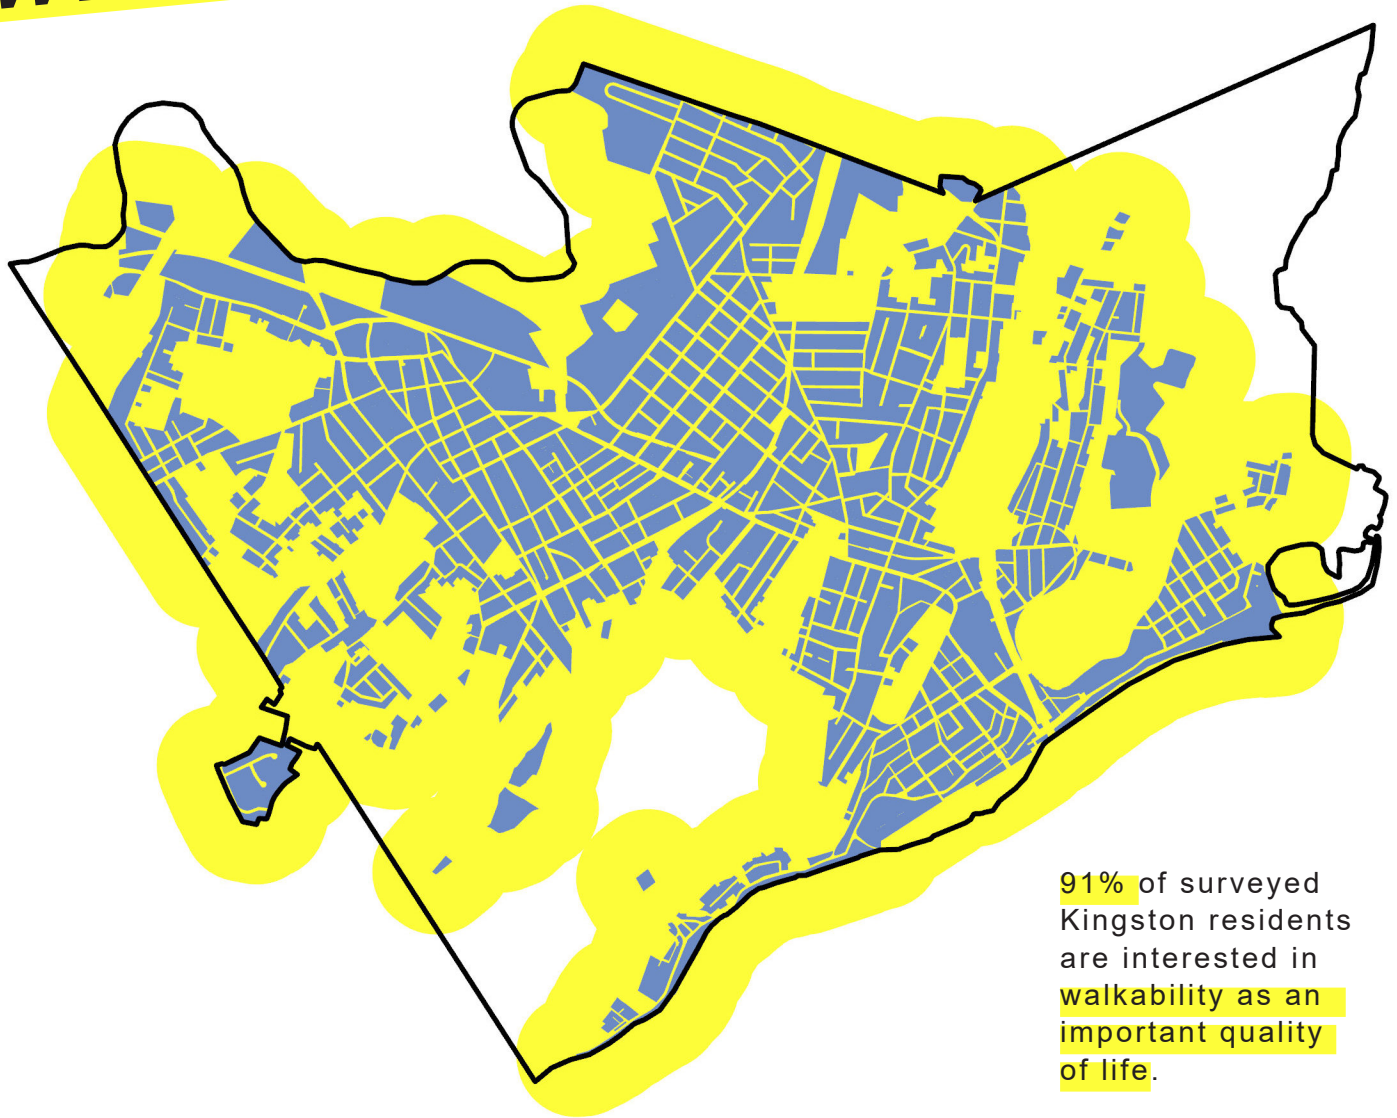

■ Areas that allow for 4+ units on a lot

engagekingston.com/kingston-forward

I'M OUT OF MILK!

WE HEARD YOU!

91% of surveyed Kingston residents are interested in walkability as an important quality of life.

89%

of Kingston is now within a 5-10min walk to an area that allows corner stores and neighborhood businesses.

-  Areas that allow for neighborhood businesses
-  1/4 mile distance to those areas

engagekingston.com/kingston-forward