We are Thankful For...

We think everyone can agree 2020 has been a hard year, but while we struggle we also learn to appreciate the things we do have. Now, more than ever, this Thanksgiving take a moment and give thanks for the gifts we do have. Kingston Parks and Rec would like to thank.....

The essential workers who continue to work tirelessly during a worldwide pandemic to keep our community safe and functioning.

Our wonderful Parks and Recreation Commission who volunteer their time and energy to help us create and run all of our programs.

Our staff who take care of our parks, our programs, scheduling, filing, grant writing, park improvements and so much more.

You! Without you attending our parks and programs, our year would have been even harder. Thank you for your support and continued participation.

Happy Thanksgiving everyone!
